Illinois Practitioner Suggests National Department for Care of Man.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "We have in this country inspectional regulations for sheep and swine, cattle and horses, for every article of manufacture, for everything but man," said Dr. C. Pruyn of Springfield before the Chicago Medical Examiners' Association, "and man, in so far as care for the race's future is concerned, is unregulated."

This assertion was made in support of a resolution offered by Dr. Liston H. Montgomery, that a department of health be organized by Congress, and a physician placed at its head as Medical Secretary, this Secretary to be on a parity with other Presidential Cabinet officers.

TIDAL WAVE ENGULFS ISLAND OF SIMALU.

Fifteen Hundred People Perish In Dutch East Indian Possessions.

Severe Earthquake Shocks Are Being Experienced Daily—Governor of Atjen Sends Dire Tidings to the Governor-General—Catastrophe Preceded by a Few Days the Havoc at Kingston.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

UTRECHT, Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A dispatch from the Governor of Atjen to the Dutch Governor-General states that the tidal wave which devastated the Dutch East Indies, Jan. 12, caused 1500 deaths on the island of Simalu. Severe earthquake shocks are being felt daily on the island.

THE ENGULFED ISLAND. The island engulfed is in the Dutch East Indies, south of the Philippine Islands. The majority of the people are Malays, a branch of the Mongolian stock. The race is short, olive-brown skin, and round head.

The Dutch East India Company established trading stations in Sumatra, the island nearest to Simalu, in 1616. The Dutch East Indies are ruled by a Governor-General appointed by a State General of Holland, assisted by a Council without executive functions.

Close to the northern coast of Java, the main island of the group, are many small islands. Agricultural pursuits engage the greater part of the population of the Dutch East Indies.

IMPORTANT POSSESSIONS. In the vicinity of the island are the islands of Java and Madura, with a population of 28,700,000. Sumatra, with the surrounding group of small islands, has a population of 2,404,000. Borneo has a population of about 1,900,000.

Other islands near the one destroyed are Celebes, with a population of 2,000,000; the Moluccas or Spice Islands, consisting of scattered groups of volcanic islands, with 400,000 inhabitants; and thousands of other smaller islands which would be affected by the shock.

The blilly formation of the islands causes frequent earth disturbances, which are felt most often in the smaller groups. There are hundreds of tribes of natives in the different islands, and civilization has made little advance.

HEAD HUNTERS. In Borneo, head hunting is still practiced. Many dialects are spoken by the natives, but they have no written language in a majority of the islands.

Guerrilla warfare between the various tribes breaks out frequently, and in some has been almost continuous since 1873.

ENTIRE ISLAND DESTROYED. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) THE HAGUE, Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The entire island was destroyed and 1500 natives killed by the tidal wave that swept the Dutch East Indies, according to dispatches received today.

Simalu, or "Hog Island," as it is better known, has almost disappeared as a result of the violent earthquake and accompanying disturbance of the ocean. Practically all the inhabitants were drowned and swept out to sea.

The civil Governor of Atjen, of the island of Sumatra, just north of Simalu, has gone to the scene of the catastrophe, to ascertain the extent of the Hundreds of Women and Children Are Fleeing the City—Two Hundred and Fourteen New Contagious Cases Yesterday.

Hundreds of women and children are fleeing the city since the epidemic of scarlet fever and diphtheria that remained dormant for a day, and seemed to yield to the fight of the health officials burst forth with added energy today, and established a new record. One hundred and forty-five cases of scarlet fever, an increase of almost 50 per cent, over the highest result of any previous day, were reported. Forty cases of diphtheria, or within five of the maximum report of a single day, also were reported.

HARRIMAN MAY REST.

After Interstate Commerce Commission Meeting Barron Thinks Magnate Will Lay Off.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BOSTON, Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. W. Barron, in the Boston News Bureau today, says that E. H. Harriman will probably take a long vacation in the near future, if business permits, but not until after the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing in New York. Much will depend upon developments of the next hearing before the commission. If all goes smoothly, and as is confidently expected by the Union Pacific people, and the commission not only develops no big problems, but on the contrary, clears up all doubts that may now exist, then Harriman will be away for a couple of months. He has not been at his desk since the operation a few weeks ago. His general health is about normal, but he is not likely to be at his office again till some time in February.

MYSTERIES OF HUMAN BRAIN.

Feeble-Minded Children of Iowa "Do Things."

John S. Recalls Dates, Events and Weather Conditions of Twenty-odd Years Without Mistake—Another Initial Wonder Multiplied by Three Figures as Fast as Given.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) OMAHA (Iowa), Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a report just issued, Assistant Superintendent Schier of the Iowa State Institution for Feeble-minded Children, tells of remarkable mental feats performed by several of the inmates of the institution.

The most astonishing case he reports is that of John S., who has been an inmate twenty-three years. He is the mental book-keeper of the home. When the date of any occurrence is desired, John S. gives it. He recalls without error the date or the employment of any new "hand," or the entrance or discharge of any inmate.

If he has seen a visitor at the home, he can, years afterward, recall the exact date of the visit and the conditions of the weather. If given the day of the month and month and year of any occurrence as far back as thirty-five years, John S. will, without hesitation, tell upon what day of the week the date fell.

A boy 16 years of age can neither read nor write, yet he can readily spell any word given him, and, as Dr. Schier says: "He has been tried with the most uncommon words time and again, and never fails to spell them correctly."

G. F. H., aged 18, can mentally multiply three figures by three figures as rapidly as they can be given him. He never fails in his multiplication feats, but his addition, subtraction and division are not correct.

A 17-year-old boy, R. G. L., without education, is able to mould the forms of animals with almost miraculous perfection. Other figures he cannot make.

PROF. JAMES RETIRES.

One of the Most Eminent Psychologists of the Present Day, Leaves Harvard.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CAMBRIDGE (Mass.), Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prof. Wm. James of Harvard, one of the most eminent psychologists and philosophers of the present time, announced to the students today his retirement from active work at Harvard, and delivered his last lecture. Students presented him a loving and enthusiastic ovation.

Prof. James has taught philosophy at Harvard since 1872. He holds degrees at Princeton, Edinburgh, Pennsylvania University, University of Paris and the Royal Prussian Academy of Science.

CANANEA CERTIFICATES.

INVESTIGATE "TRUST."

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—An investigation of the so-called "theatrical trust" was begun by the grand jury today. Nearly all the prominent theatrical promoters in the city and some from other cities have been subpoenaed to appear before the jury. Among these are Al Hayman and his representative, Louis Morgenstern, Robert Young, representing Charles Frohman; Meyer W. Livingston, representing Klaw & Erlanger; George H. Nicolai and Dudley McAdow, representing Stair and Haven and others.

"SALOME" PRODUCED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—At the Metropolitan Opera-house tonight for the first time in this country was given Richard Strauss's musical setting of Oscar Wilde's one-act play, "Salome." The opera occupied over an hour and forty-five minutes. The opening scene was singularly beautiful, representing a terrace on a palace of Herod Antipas amid the banquet hall in which Herod sits carousing with Herodias and his numerous guests.

LABORERS' COLLISION VICTIMS.

ALBANY (N. Y.), Jan. 22.—Four men were killed and at least twelve injured today on the New York Central, about half a mile west of Albany, by the collision of a "light" engine with a caboose filled with railroad laborers.

ANOTHER QUAKE.

Kingston Again Is Shaken Up.

Movement Is Now Afoot to Demand the Recall of Gov. Sweetenham.

Latter Explains Reference to the "Tramp" as a "Jocular Parallel."

His Message of Gratitude a Polite One, but British Lion Still Paces.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Vice Consul Orrett reported another shock at Kingston today. In response to specific inquiries from the department, he cabled that Sperry, Bourke, Watson and wife, Mrs. Case, Joseph and Mary Eustace, Edward and David Taylor were all alive. The following cablegram, summarizing the situation in Jamaica, as the result of the earthquake, was received from Vice Consul Orrett under today's date:

"No loss of life at any of the hotels at Montego Bay, Port Antonio, interior towns, Knutsford Park, Constant Springs or any other hotel except at Myrtle Bank Hotel, which was completely wrecked. Many deaths occurred there, chiefly among Europeans. In your cablegram in death list so far published. Many bodies have been found in the business portion of the city, which was devastated by fire and burned beyond recognition. Consulate opened today. Another shock this afternoon. No damage. Trains running. Two piers saved."

KINGSTON (Jamaica) Jan. 21.—The publication today in the Daily Telegraph of Gov. Sweetenham's letter to Rear-Admiral Davis has greatly intensified the resentment of the residents against the Governor for rebuffing the tender of American assistance, and there is a movement on foot here to demand his recall.

A small minority, mostly officials, support Gov. Sweetenham and their views were voiced today by Rev. Graham, pastor of the Methodist church, who declared that the Governor was justified in resenting the landing of Americans.

The correspondent of the Associated Press spoke to Gov. Sweetenham today regarding the Davis incident. The Governor said he had not invited Rear-Admiral Davis to land the sailors. Asked if he endorsed the action taken by Rear-Admiral Davis, the Governor replied:

"That is a matter between me and Rear-Admiral Davis, to whom I must refer you."

"JOCULAR PARALLEL." The Governor said his reference in his letter to Davis to "a tramp piloting the house of a New York millionaire" was merely a "jocular parallel."

A meeting of the relief committee was held here today on the call of the Governor to discover the precise conditions attending the difference between the Governor and the Admiral. At the close of the meeting, and after having read Gov. Sweetenham's letter to Rear-Admiral Davis, Rev. Dr. Enos Nuttall, Archbishop of Jamaica, sought the Governor to talk the matter over with him, saying that if he found the conditions warranted, he would send an explanatory cablegram to President Roosevelt.

The Archbishop was unable to use the Governor owing to the latter's absence at headquarters and he will see him tomorrow. Archbishop Nuttall told the Associated Press correspondents he greatly regretted that any action had been taken that might make the Jamaicans appear ungrateful for the generous tenders of the United States, while as a matter of fact they welcomed them warmly.

He said he approved the Governor's desire to endeavor to inspire the Jamaicans with the sentiment of self-help, but that this was no excuse for the rejection of American aid.

ARCHBISHOP'S VIEWS. "There yet remains much to be done to relieve the suffering of the

be glad when tomorrow comes and there will be no more delay." He then anxiously inquired if there was any possibility of the trial being further postponed, and when told there was not, seemed greatly relieved.

READ MURDER STORY. The prisoner, whose battle for life is less than twenty-four hours away, slept well last night. Before the call of the lawyer, he read a story of the trial of "Dave" Hannigan, who killed "Rolly" Mann, believing him to be responsible for his sister's downfall and death. The "unwritten law" was the defense in that case, and Hannigan was sent to Mattawan.

Thaw has also been reading Hugo and Balzac with an idea of gaining an insight into character, so that he may the better judge the talesmen who will be called for jury duty.

LURE FOR LURA. Lura Simonson, an actress who was believed to have been in Africa and who is believed to be a most important witness by the prosecution, is in New York City. It was learned that detectives from the District Attorney's office are searching for her, to subpoena her for the trial.

Miss Simonson is believed to have knowledge of an alleged beating that Thaw inflicted on his wife, and of an alleged quarrel in which Thaw is said to have stood over his wife, while forcing her to sign a confession. Miss Simonson was discovered living in Philadelphia, a few days ago, and arrived here yesterday.

KEEPING MOUTH SHUT. Howard Nesbit, brother-in-law of the prisoner, had a conference with Asst. Dist. Atty. Garvan today, as did Policeman Debs, who arrested the prisoner, and Capt. Hodgins who registered him at the "Tenderloin" police station. The latter, when asked what he had said to Mr. Garvan replied: "Now, I am not going will advance will be that of emotional insanity. Counsel for the prisoner and the District Attorney are reticent as to exactly what course they will pursue during the trial, but it is taken for granted by criminal lawyers that the trial of Thaw will be marked throughout with the most dramatic climaxes and sensational accusations ever known in a homicidal trial in this city.

POLICE PREPARATIONS. Never before has the police department made such elaborate preparations for the handling of the crowds of morbid persons who are anxious to get a glimpse of the prisoner, his gray-haired mother or his much-famed, beautiful wife. The entire reserves from three precincts will form police lines outside the Criminal Court building throughout the trial, and only persons showing credentials will be allowed to enter the building.

The first proceeding of the trial tomorrow will be the examination of the 200 talesmen, from whom will be drawn the jury who are to try the accused man.

SHE HAS THE "GIFT." Des Moines Woman Wife of Supreme Court Justice Can Now Talk in the "Spiritual Language"

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) DES MOINES (Iowa) Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local religious circles are deeply stirred by the testimony of Mrs. Scott M. Ladd, wife of an Iowa Supreme Court Justice, that she and certain members of the Mission School, which she conducts, have been blessed with a "gift of tongues," which enables them to speak a spiritual language which they can understand themselves, but cannot explain to others. They say the phenomenon is the result of protracted prayer and indicative of the near approach of Christ's second coming.

people, to provide shelter for them, and to prepare for the task of rebuilding the city," the Archbishop continued, "in all of which American aid would have been of great assistance."

The Archbishop deprecated the idea that Gov. Sweetenham's action would result in national animosity.

"It was merely a result of the dictatorial character of the Governor," he said. "The impetuous manner, frequent abuse of power, and the discourtesy to citizens have earned him great unpopularity, though otherwise he is regarded as a comparatively conscientious official."

OTHER CRITICISMS.

There is much indignation expressed here at Gov. Sweetenham's action in docking the pay of government clerks who absented themselves from duty to nurse sick or dying relatives.

Last Saturday the Governor suspended the free service of trains for the transportation of refugees into the country, but at the urgent request of Archbishop Muhlke he consented to continue this free service for one week.

No sailors have landed from the British cruiser Indefatigable, which arrived last night.

SNAPPING RED TAPE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, Jan. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) War Secretary Haldane's action in snapping red tape and culling thanks to the American government for relief sent to Jamaica, was due partly to his own initiative, but principally to the urgent recommendation of Ambassador Bryce. The action was taken on newspaper reports. Immediately after reading Gov. Sweetenham's letter to Admiral Davis, Haldane telegraphed to Bryce:

"What will the Americans think of this? What ought to be done, Sweetenham is silent. Prompt action seems imperative."

The new Ambassador to Washington quickly responded:

"Strongly recommend instant dispatch of cordial telegram of thanks to State Department, with intimation that Imperial government declines to associate itself with any discourtesy to naval representative of American nation."

SHOCKS IN SICILY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ROME, Jan. 22.—Since the Kingston disaster slight shocks have been felt in Sicily, and are continuing, causing considerable alarm. Several buildings threaten to collapse, compelling the occupants to camp outside.

Monsi Astina and Strohbell continue to show signs of activity.

INEFFICIENCY CONDEMNED.

AMERICAN REFUGEES' VIEWS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—American refugees here today on board the steamer Prinz Elster, which sailed from the stricken city on Thursday afternoon, the third day after the earthquake, were unanimous in condemning what they termed "the inactivity and utter inefficiency" of the English authorities on the island during the first days of the disaster. For three days there was no semblance of order, and nothing definite was done in the matter of relieving the sufferings of many of the wounded.

It was asserted that men and women who sought shelter on board the British steamship Port Kingston, which was chartered for Sir Alfred Jones's party from England, were put ashore and that the pilot of the American refugees that the women of the American were allowed at least the privilege of sleeping on the open decks of the Port Kingston was refused "with great civility." The wounded, who had been taken on board the steamer for an asylum, were put ashore the day following the earthquake—Tuesday—and were left on the railway wharf until cared for by the American naval authorities.

The Prinz Elster's passengers told of the great relief the arrival of the American squadron brought to the terror-stricken people and were amazed to hear of the rupture which had occurred between Gov. Sweetenham and Admiral Davis.

GOVERNMENT WAITING.

ENGLAND IS MYSTIFIED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, Jan. 22.—The incident arising from the exchange of letters at Kingston between Gov. Sweetenham and Rear-Admiral Davis now appears to be entering the waiting stage, as the government, after doing all possible in the absence of advice from the Governor of Jamaica, is obliged to defer further action until he reports.

In the meantime the trend of official sentiment is toward having Gov. Sweetenham apologize or retire, but this is based on the press reports of his conduct, and it is difficult to reconcile the Governor's present recognition of the assistance rendered by the American squadron with the terms of his previous letter.

John Carter, American Charge d'Affaires, held a meeting with the officials of the Foreign Office this afternoon, but was informed that absolutely nothing had yet been received from Gov. Sweetenham.

SWEETENHAM'S GRATITUDE.

WASHINGTON DEVELOPMENTS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—An expression of gratitude from Gov. Sweetenham of Jamaica for the sympathy and aid extended by the United States to the victims of the disaster of that island; the publication of the text of a grateful note from Eme Howard, the British charge here, conveying the regrets of Sir Robert Grey, British principal Secretary of State, on account of the incident, and a cable report from Admiral Sir Cecil Orre, at Kingston were among today's developments in the now famous con-

KINGSTON (Jamaica) Jan. 15.—(Special Correspondence of the New York Herald) Monday afternoon, January 14, was brilliantly clear, and the world of society and business was going about their occupations, when, at about twenty-three minutes to 4 o'clock (the clocks differ), three violent shocks of earthquake came in succession, preceded and accompanied by a heavy subterranean groaning and grinding roar.

Inside the space of ten seconds, the thriving city of Kingston was in ruins and already clouds of black smoke were rising from half a dozen different points.

People away on the hills say that although, of course, they knew that there had been a severe earthquake, the clouds of dust that arose over the doomed city afforded a premonition of some appalling disaster in the plains below.

ON THE WATER FRONT.

The city fell like a house of cards. The worst burst of the shock seems to have been borne by the streets facing the water front, and there is no exaggeration to assert that not a house was left intact and safe to remain in. The car lines were twisted and rent, and in the middle of Harbour street there was one car weighing many tons broken in the middle and standing on its end.

The cable office was a ruin, with furious flames breaking over it from a house blazing on the other side of the street.

ROYAL MAIL VICTIMS.

Next door was the office of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, a mere skeleton, while its superintendent, Capt. Tom Constantine, was being carried off, his head smashed in by a falling beam. His wife, away in the garden of her ruined home, in St. Michael's, was lying bruised with a broken leg. She had been indisposed and confined to her room in the upper story, and, as the light shone through to the basement, his only child, a girl of 15, was also seriously injured.

The scenes along Harbour, King and Port Royal streets was appalling and heartrending. Everywhere was desolation and ruin. Mrs. W. was lying about with limbs torn off; others were being carried in blankets to the hospital that was luckily still standing in the upper part of the town.

TERRORIZED PEOPLE.

The shrieks of those buried alive under masses of debris were faint or piercing, according to the injuries of the victims, and, above all, the lamentations of the poor black people, most of whom believed the day of doom was at hand, and their emotional religious temperament was superstitious.

Groups of solitary individuals were on their knees in prayer, while others marched in procession where the wreckage of the city was to be seen. Among the buildings more completely shattered were the Roman Catholic Church and new solidly-built Gordon Hall, the Scotch church, and the old parish church of Kingston, and the "Old Ben Low" is burned, one of the first buildings to be consumed by the devouring flames. The Bank of Nova Scotia, the various government offices and Myrtlebank Hotel.

trophy between the Governor and Rear-Admiral Davis, commanding the relief squadron which went to Kingston.

While Gov. Sweetenham's message is couched in the most polite terms, the British authorities are not through with the matter, his letter, which informs this government that His Majesty's government is causing official inquiries to be made as to the authenticity of the letter credited to Gov. Sweetenham.

An interesting chapter was admitted to the public, when it became known that on January 20, after Admiral Davis and his ships had sailed from Kingston, Brig-Gen. Wint, commanding the Army of Pacification in Cuba, on the request of the acting British Minister at Havana, transmitted through Gov. Macgougan sent to Kingston five hospital tents, twenty-eight wall tents and fifty-two cot tents, all complete, with stove, and Secretary of State was prompt to give his approval on his arrival here yesterday morning from South Carolina, and it is understood that the tents are now on their way to Kingston.

HE APPEALS FOR AID.

KINGSTON MAYOR SEEKS HELP.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Mayor Tait of Kingston, Jamaica, in his official capacity, has appealed to the generosity of the Americans on behalf of the earthquake-stricken people.

"On behalf of the stricken people I appeal through you to the generosity of the American people for help. Money, lumber, and building materials most urgently needed."

UTAH LOYAL TO THE FLAG.

Senator Sutherland Speaks in Smoot's Behalf.

Talk of Polygamy is "Hysteria," Says He.

Brownsville Compromise Is Adopted by Senate.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Senator Sutherland, today, came to the defense of his colleague, Senator Smoot of Utah, defending his right to retain his seat in the United States Senate.

Prefacing his argument with observations on the gravity of the charges against Mr. Smoot, the junior Utah Senator said there were extreme views held in his State on both sides of the question. He said he did not expect to satisfy either of these extreme classes.

"I am not here to justify wrongdoing in my own State," he said, "any more than I am here to justify wrongdoing in any other State. Whoever may be thus employed must bear his own responsibility."

Senator Sutherland said if Smoot was a violator of law, either as principal or accessory, or recognized any allegiance to any power paramount to the allegiance he owed his flag or country, or by reason of his conduct he was a traitor, and his continuing in office would be a disgrace to the Senate which would bring reproach or shame upon it, he should not retain his seat; otherwise he should.

DENIES POLYGAMY CHARGE.

Continuing, Mr. Sutherland denied Smoot was a polygamist, and notwithstanding the fact that this charge originally made by one man had been repudiated by everybody connected with the case, it was still asserted in the newspapers and given general credence in the country.

He said that Smoot was a polygamist had much to do with the fact that the number of witnesses which have been presented to the Senate.

Mr. Sutherland declared that, however numerous these positions, Senators could not afford to be swayed from a just determination of the case on its merits. Each of them must render the judgment after a candid and impartial consideration of the evidence and a judicial determination of the truth.

SMOOTH APPOINTMENT.

Discussing the charge that Smoot had taken an oath as an Apostle that conflicted with his duties as a Senator, the speaker said this charge had originated with one man who had charged Smoot with polygamy, and that of the five witnesses who charged Smoot with it, four had been shown by uncontradicted evidence to be persons of bad reputation, drunkards, or unscrupulous men.

There was a large amount of evidence, he said, even from thoroughly reputable citizens to the effect that no oath was taken, and taken altogether, this testimony was utterly discredited.

PRACTICE OF POLYGAMY.

The two charges remaining were that polygamy and polygamist, a combination still being practiced by adherents of the Mormon church, and that the church interfered in political and temporal matters.

On the first charge, the speaker traced the history of the church from its origin in 1820, until its final abandonment by the church in 1890.

The thing which the government of the United States as well as the Gentiles in Utah have been striving for, said Mr. Sutherland, was to get rid of the institution of polygamy. He took the position that the people who had entered into this unlawful relation did so under a religious conviction that they were good men and good women, whose views respecting this matter, he said:

"LIKE TYPHOID FEVER."

"An erroneous religious belief is the most difficult thing in the world to combat. It knows no rule of logic; it is simply major and minor premise and conclusion rolled into one dogmatic declaration that 'thus saith the Lord.' Such a belief cannot be yielded to the appeal of reason; it simply runs its course like a case of typhoid fever."

Briefly reviewing some of the famous religious delusions of the world, the speaker said that "from the beginning of the world, religious fanaticism has run its course through all history, and nothing has been too absurd and nothing too cruel as to be believed, taught and done in the name of religion."

POLYGAMY DISCONTINUED.

The fact that polygamy was therefore opposed to the united thought of the American people and to that of the Christian world, he continued, "was no argument that I was believed by the Mormon people who practiced it in the past. With the manifesto of the church forbidding future polygamous marriages, the general opinion among the Gentiles of Utah had been that the end of the contest had come."

"At that time there were over 2000 polygamous marriages or households. That some of these people had resumed their former practice was beyond doubt. As a general thing, it had been thought that so long as these relations were not flagrant nor flaunted in the face of the community—that they were not approved, but were deplored, it was a hard situation to meet, and all things considered, it was better for the State to bear with it in patience until the people who occupied these relations, the process of time should pass away."

He quoted the testimony of numerous witnesses upon both sides to this effect:

CASES NOT HONEST.

As to the charge that there have been polygamous marriages since the manifesto, he said that he had means of knowing how many such cases there might have been, but that there had been some he had no doubt. These men occupied a wholly different position from the old polygamists, for them no word of excuse or toleration could be uttered by a honest man.

"One of them," he declared, "who thus arrogantly defies legislative enactment and violates religious command and by his conduct brings shame and reproach upon all the people deserves to be searched out and to receive in punishment the extreme penalty of the law. The vast majority of the Mormon people are opposed to these new marriages."

CHURCH IN POLITICS.

Discussing the question of interference of the church in political matters, he traced the church history, showing that when the Mormons went to Utah in 1847, their movement possessed all the characteristics of a religious exodus. In the beginning, they probably felt no need of a civil government at all.

"Their religion to them was everything and other matters were of subordinate concern," he said. "For twenty years they were isolated from the world. There were no telegraphs, no railroads, no newspapers except their own. When a civil government was formed, the religious leaders became their civil officers. Eventually, the rule of the church became more and more, until the government in Utah was a virtualocracy."

GENTILES ORGANIZE.

The Gentiles, who organized under the name of the Liberal party, fought to overthrow polygamy and church control in government matters, while the Mormon people in opposition to this organization, formed the People's party. For twenty years the fight was altogether pro-church and anti-church in character. In 1880, after the polygamy manifesto, the People's party was abandoned and organizations affected along national lines.

Since then, while charges of church interference have been made from time to time, and while there may have been instances of interference by leading church officials in politics, on the whole there has been marvelous advance.

NO UNFAIR TREATMENT.

In selecting officers, the Gentiles had not been treated unfairly. The Gentiles, unfairly treated by Mormon voters, said Mr. Sutherland. He thought that there was at least no more disposition on the part of Mormons to vote against Gentiles than there was on the part of the Gentiles to vote against Mormons.

"I do not claim that conditions are perfect in Utah—they are not perfect anywhere; but I do say that conditions are immeasurably better today than they have been before, and that such evils as still exist, but I do claim that these evils are fewer than they have ever been before, and in my opinion it is only a matter of a short time until they will be eradicated altogether."

DENIES DISLOYALTY.

Mr. Sutherland declared that any charge that life or property was in the slightest degree in danger in Utah, that the people or any of them, taught their children to disrespect the flag, or that there was any feeling of hostility toward the federal government, was a cruel falsehood. He instanced the fact that when the war was declared with Spain, Mormon and Gentile alike enlisted in large numbers. The Utah batteries, he said, under the command of Maj. Richard W. Young, himself a Mormon, and as brave, loyal and as splendid a gentleman as ever wore the uniform, won for themselves in the Philippines the honor of heroic and imperishable glory.

CALLS IT "HYSTERIA."

Mr. Smoot himself, said Mr. Sutherland, had always insisted that the practice of polygamy should be abandoned. He said that Smoot was a polygamist, and not a line of testimony could be found which indicated that he had ever advocated the practice of polygamy. He said that Smoot had been clean and above reproach; that the demand of the petitioner that he should be removed from the Senate was a demand that he should be removed from the Senate in order that he might not from that exalted place make war upon American homes was hysteria.

When Senator Sutherland completed his speech on the Smoot resolution at 3:28, he was greeted by a prolonged and loud applause. He then addressed the Senate upon the legal questions involved in the President's demand for the removal of Smoot. The compromise resolution providing for an investigation of the Brownsville affair was agreed to by the Senate at 5:30 o'clock, without a roll call. All efforts to amend it were voted down.

Senator Culbertson called up the House resolution providing for an investigation of the Brownsville affair, and the Senate voted to pass it. The Senate then adjourned until tomorrow.

FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

CLOSING SESSION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—SENATE. The Senate today passed the compromise resolution authorizing the Committee on Military Affairs to investigate the facts of the affair on Brownsville on the nights of August 13 and 14, and without questioning the legality or justice of any act of the President in relation to or connected with that affair.

This action came after the subject had been under consideration almost daily since the first day of the present session of Congress, and the every session of the question had been discussed on all sides.

Before the adoption of the resolution, several substitute measures were voted down by the Senate, Mr. Sutherland declaring that the President had authority for his course and acted justly, that "from the beginning of the world, religious fanaticism has run its course through all history, and nothing has been too absurd and nothing too cruel as to be believed, taught and done in the name of religion."

Another, by Senator McCumber, simply providing for an investigation without reference to the President in any manner, was tabled by a viva voce vote.

A third, by Senator Culbertson, amending the President's demand and providing for a roll-call vote of 46 to 18.

There was no record vote on the resolution adopted.

Senator Sutherland occupied the first hour of the session, delivering his first speech in the Senate. It was in behalf of the right of Senator Smoot of Utah to retain his seat in the Senate. The Brownsville case followed, Senators taking the opportunity to explain the vote on the resolution.

HOUSE. The House today passed the Diplomatic and Consular Bill, which carries more than $3,000,000, and the Military Appropriation Bill, carrying $1,954,482.

During the consideration of the Diplomatic Bill, speeches were made by Representative Sherley of Kentucky on the treaty-making power; by Representative Slayden of Texas, who urged more liberal recognition of the South in the matter of the diplomatic improvements, and by Representative Longworth of Ohio, who spoke in favor of the United States owning the residences of its foreign representatives.

SIoux FALLS (S. D.) Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Powers and Crocker, who, about three years ago, married the daughter of William H. Crocker, a multi-millionaire of San Francisco, is the latest member of the Sioux Falls divorce colony.

The interesting feature of the case is the fact that his father has previously married an older sister of Crocker's wife.

The Crocker girl was but 17 years old when she was married to the young man, who, at that time, was but 20. The young man is an Englishman.

It is understood here that he is to be pensioned off with a military pension when the divorce is granted him. Young Crocker has engaged sumptuous apartments in the city.

When approached by a newspaper man he refused either to affirm or deny that he was in Sioux Falls for the purpose of establishing residence with the intention of applying for divorce. He stated that his private affairs were of no concern to the public. He says he will engage in cattle-raising business in the spring.

BOONE WRITES FATAL LETTER.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BELLINGHAM, Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Deserving the wife of his youth and his five small children, under the pretense of a letter to look up a new home for them, after he had sold his old home, W. C. Boone of Bellingham, aged 30 years, a descendant of Daniel Boone, is under arrest in Oregon, charged with bigamy.

It is declared Boone has three wives, all of whom seek to punish him by law. Three years ago Boone sold his farm at Doe Bay and left home. Since that time his family has been on the verge of want and almost destitute, for not a penny did he send home during his long absence.

Boone's wanderings finally took him to Salem, and it was here that he met and wed a woman 70 years old. This woman is the owner of a farm in the Willamette Valley, and it was Boone's avariciousness and his failure to keep the law that led to his arrest.

Boone wrote home that he had "married an old woman, who would probably die in a short time," and by doing his wife be of good cheer, declared that "as soon as his second wife died he would return to Doe Bay with lots of money."

The Bellingham wife immediately placed evidence in the hands of the Oregon authorities that led to her husband's arrest.

The Bellingham wife immediately placed evidence in the hands of the Oregon authorities that led to her husband's arrest.

SURVEY OF CUBA.

OMAHA (Nebr.) Jan. 22.—Orders have been issued from headquarters of the Department of Missouri, at Omaha, that the battalion of 300 engineers now at Fort Riley, Kan., leave that post, February 24, and go to Cuba, where a survey of the island is being made for use of the United States.

FARMERS IN CONVENTION.

ATLANTA (Ga.) Jan. 22.—Several hundred members, representing a dozen States, gathered here today, for the annual convention of the National Farmers' Union. The first of the sessions was behind closed doors. The union is said to have a membership of more than a million.

POPULACE IN TEARFUL RAGE.

Friends of Victim Threaten to Avenge Crime.

Suspected Murderers Tremble in Fear of Rope.

Bellingham Man Accused of Bigamy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BELLINGHAM, Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Alternately threatening to try the murderers, the friends of the victim, and weeping over the remains of her body, in the memory of her awful fate Saturday night, in her own home, the town of Bellingham is plunged into a state of mingled savagery and sorrow, such as it has never before known.

Literally hundreds of people in Whatcom county and British Columbia have signed their willingness to lynch the slayer of the popular woman, should he be found, and the suspects now in jail in this city are trembling as they hear of the rage of the populace.

Miss Roper's death has plunged the entire town into grief, which reached its most poignant stage today at the funeral. Six ministers officiated and lynch guards were sent in procession from many parts of the country.

The brother of the dead woman have vowed to find her slayer. The latest evidence in the case is a bit of lace held in Miss Roper's right hand, which has caused some of the authorities to suspect that a woman was implicated in the crime.

Tonight, Harry Wells, held as a suspect, attempted to hang himself by a blanket rope.

AND KINDNESS ALWAYS PAYS.

CHICAGO SLEUTHS GENTLY HUNT DYNAMITE ROBBERS.

Four "Plain Clothes" Men Detailed to Capture Two Burglars Who Have Two Hundred Pounds of Dynamite Cartridges Will Not Shoot, Use Clubs, Nor Pat With Force.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Four "plain clothes" men are engaged in one of the most unique thieft hunts ever undertaken in Chicago.

They have been detailed by Capt. O'Brien, chief of detectives, to run down and capture two men who last night stole 200 pounds of dynamite cartridges from the warehouse of the Byrne Construction Company.

"Keep your eyes peeled for a side pocket, with the cartridges extracted," was the final warning to the squad, as it launched forth to round up the hasty robbers.

The sleuths also were referred to principles expounded recently by Police Commissioner Egan in a lecture to the police. Some of these are, in brief:

Never shoot, except in self-defense. Never beat a prisoner with a club. Never shake a prisoner roughly when searching his pockets.

Do not pat with unnecessary force.

DIVORCE COLONY SCANDAL.

POWERS COULD JOIN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SIoux FALLS (S. D.) Jan. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Powers and Crocker, who, about three years ago, married the daughter of William H. Crocker, a multi-millionaire of San Francisco, is the latest member of the Sioux Falls divorce colony.

The interesting feature of the case is the fact that his father has previously married an older sister of Crocker's wife.

The Crocker girl was but 17 years old when she was married to the young man, who, at that time, was but 20. The young man is an Englishman.

It is understood here that he is to be pensioned off with a military pension when the divorce is granted him. Young Crocker has engaged sumptuous apartments in the city.

When approached by a newspaper man he refused either to affirm or deny that he was in Sioux Falls for the purpose of establishing residence with the intention of applying for divorce. He stated that his private affairs were of no concern to the public. He says he will engage in cattle-raising business in the spring.

THREE VITAL POINTS.
Three points of vital interest to the entire West were emphasized by George J. Kindel, manufacturer and one of the complainers. Kindel claimed that Denver manufacturers had been driven out of business by freight rates on raw material. He declared rates are low to the Pacific Coast and Denver people are paying much more than those at tidewater. He also stated that jobbers were forced to close up their houses because they are unable to get into competition with other territories on an equal basis.

NOT SPECIFIC ENOUGH.
Commissioner Prouty announced that the allegations in the complaint are not specific enough. He suggested to Attorney William Harrison, representing Mr. Kindel, that the complaint be made more specific in regard to class rates. He said that an allegation could be made that the class rates were excessive, but that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to make an allegation on commodity rates.

Kindel declared that the complaint was that Denver had to pay a higher rate per ton per mile than some other cities.

Prouty said he did not believe that commodities would hold this in general the rates were too high, nor would any court hold that the rates in general were high. Denver was so situated, he said, that the rate to San Francisco through Denver should be lower than the rate to Denver. This would not show that the rate to Denver was too high. The only ground on which the case could be heard was that the rates were unreasonable to Denver.

MOTION TO AMEND.
Harrison made a motion to so amend the complaint that the class rates may be shown to be excessive and unreasonable.

P. W. Weago, local manager for Reeves & Co., manufacturers of farming implements at Columbus, Ind., was examined in regard to the rates charged from Columbus to Denver, and other points approximately the same distance from the manufacturing center.
His testimony showed that rates were greater to Denver than to other points. He said he was unable to job his commodities from this city on account of the excessive rates to the West.

PETITION OF INTERVENTION.
A bomb shell was thrown into the case of the plaintiffs this afternoon.
Just as adjournment was about to be taken, Attorney Edwin Costigan appeared for the Denver Chamber of Commerce and asked permission to introduce a petition of intervention because of the manner in which the case was being conducted by Attorneys Harrison and Kindel.

He said that the members of the Chamber desired it would be detrimental to the business of Denver if their case was pursued along present lines.
The directors objected especially, he said, to the presentation of the matter on the basis of the rate-per-ton per mile.

Kindel denied that he was asking that the rates be adjusted on that basis.

"I don't understand this move," he said. "Why has the Chamber subscribed $200 toward this case?"

The railroad attorneys seem delighted at the turn of affairs.

SANTA FE ATTACKS.
Henry J. Rogers, attorney for the Santa Fe and some other railroads, this afternoon attacked the appearance of the Merchants' Traffic Association in the case, on the ground that the association was organized for the purpose of promoting litigation. Schwader was instructed to file the articles of incorporation of the association.

HARRISON'S CHARGE.
Attorney Harrison was instructed to file his amendment to the complaint tomorrow morning. This will attack the class rates from the Missouri River, Chicago and St. Louis to Denver on the ground that they are excessive.

TESTIFIED FOR DEFENSE.
J. A. Monroe, freight traffic manager of the Union Pacific Railroad east of Green River, was the first witness for the defense. He explained at length how the rates are computed and gave a technical explanation of why the railroad was compelled to make what appears to be exorbitant rates in some cases.

He said the Union Pacific tried to give a "square deal" to all points.
Whenever a change was made in the Denver rate, the road always heard of it from other points. Ogden, Salt Lake, Pocatello, Butte and other points were as eager to become jobbing centers as Denver was.

The rate making was not a matter of rate per ton per mile. It is made up by adding together the local rates between "natural stepping stones" first from the Atlantic Coast to Chicago, from Chicago to the Missouri River,
and from the Missouri River to Denver.

In answer to a question of Prouty,
the witness said Denver paid in 1906, $3.34 for freight for the East. He said that even a straight 10 per cent reduction on this would not go into the pockets of the people and even if it did it would have no effect on their property. Such a reduction would go practically exclusively to the merchants.

AT DENVER.
COMMISSIONER PROUTY.
The hearing of the case was held today
when the Interstate Commerce commissioners returned his investigation of the complaint against the railroads, alleging that they charged excessive rates against the merchants of the Burlington and the Santa Fe lines; the St. Louis and the Santa Fe; C. D.

NEWSPAPERS ON TRAIN.
"CARE TAKERS" MUST PAY.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The Interstate Commerce Commission, in an opinion by Commissioner Harlan, holds that men employed by newspapers to carry newspapers on special trains may not lawfully be granted transportation. The decision follows:
"Where Congress has expressly enumerated special classes of persons excepted from the operation of general provisions in a law, this commission cannot enlarge the excepted classes by mere construction."

CATHOLIC WORK AMONG POLES.

CHURCH, MONASTERY, SCHOOL TO BE BUILT HERE.

Site at Edge of Eagle Rock Valley Bought Yesterday for Thirteen Thousand Dollars, and Many Thousands More to Be Expended on the Institutions—More Poles Coming.

A deal was consummated yesterday whereby the Order of the Divine Savior, a missionary branch of the Roman Catholic Church, becomes possessor of a tract of six acres on a commanding eminence at the edge of Eagle Rock Valley, fronting Center road and near the new Huntington car barns. E. S. Shank is the seller, through the agency of C. S. Whipple, and the purchasers secure the site for a Polish church, a monastery and a Polish Catholic school. The price was $13,000.

The buildings will be large, substantial structures, representing an outlay of many thousands of dollars. It is planned to make this the center of religious work among the Polish population of Los Angeles and vicinity. At present there are 300 families of this nationality in the city, and more are constantly arriving.

With the definite conclusion as to establishing the work of the Order of the Divine Savior, a large influx of Poles from eastern districts. It is expected there will be a large Polish colony in the vicinity of the new institutions, and the sale is partially made for an immigration of many families from Buffalo to this city.

In this country the efforts of the Order of the Divine Savior are philanthropic work among the Poles. In the state of Washington are three "foundations" of the order; but that here will be the sole institution of its kind in the entire Southwest.

The first work among the Catholic Poles in this city was undertaken about two years ago, when Father Pererek, an eastern Polish priest, gave a mission in the old Plaza Church.

Fr. Eugene Conaty's invitation, Rev. Victorinus Orsaniczak came to Los Angeles from the house of the order established at Pe-El, Wash., and became the regular work services for the Poles in the Cathedral Hall. A little later, Father Koelowski came from the regular work services for the Poles on a leave of absence because of broken health, and he joined in the work among the Poles.

The invitation of Bishop Conaty was extended to the Order of the Divine Savior to establish itself in this field, and yesterday's purchase was the final consummation. This means the bringing of the regular work services for the Poles, the investment of thousands of dollars in handsome structures, and the establishment of a mission, and an auxiliary work of the sisters of the same order and a school to be conducted by them.

Very Rev. S. Jurek, S.D.S., superior of the western province, has been here the past week from France, Wash., in charge of the work among the Poles. He reported for the North last evening.

Fr. Orsaniczak is a native of the order's work here, and will soon receive further assistance.

Fr. Orsaniczak was born in Rome twenty-five years ago by a German priest. Its field was designated as the foreign missions, the aid of diocesan priests, and the work of the order is devoted almost entirely to work among the Poles.

WOULD-BE ROBBERS FOILED.

Fail in Attempt to Blow Open Diamond Coal and Supply Company's Safe With Nitro-Glycerine.

A crude attempt was made to blow open the safe of the Black Diamond Supply Company at No. 308 Macy street, Monday night. Nitro-glycerine was used, but the fuse went out and the charge failed to explode. Had the robbers opened the safe but they would have obtained nothing of value.

Charges of the explosive were placed in the safe, but the fuse was not lit. The would-be robbers are believed to be amateurs and to have been frightened away in the middle of their preparations.

When Manager Oeder of the company was on duty at the office, Monday morning, he discovered that the front door had been tampered with. He noticed, too, that a window had been left open.

Detectives say that an attempt was to have been made to break into the safe, but the fuse went out. Yesterday morning, S. Margowicz, the proprietor, was warned at midnight by two officers, who asked him to turn out the lights and leave them in charge. He refused. The detectives say that if he had consented, they might have captured a gang of crooks.

SINGING AT THE NORMAL.

Bells were not rung yesterday morning at the Normal School, and time slipped along on wings when Roland Paul entertained the students during two school periods with the golden tones of his voice. Encore after encore being called for. Miss Crystal Waters, president of the graduating class, sang "The Rose Tree." The other two delightful numbers. The entire programme was as follows:

"Rose in June." (Grousseau) "Winds in the Trees." (Thomas) "O Vision Entrancing." (Thomas) "In the Shadow of Your Valley." (Grousseau) "Una Furtiva Lagrima." (Donizetti) "Allersleben." (Strauss) "Arioso" from "Pacified." (Bourgeois) "Farewell." "The Name." (Woods) "My First Sweetheart." (Loehr) and "My Gift." Miss Waters sang, "Come to Me Sweetheart," and Vannah's Cradle Song. Miss Mabel Cooper was accompanist.

In the case of the State of Nebraska vs. the Nebraska Lumber Traders' Association, Referee Post yesterday ruled that the State courts have jurisdiction of the case, and that the lumber dealers' trust for violation of the state anti-trust laws. The association asked that the action could be brought only in the Federal court.

Humboldt Brewing Co's.

Capital $300,000.
Non-Assessable. Will Advance

To complete payment on the properties a limited number of shares of stock is sold the price will be advanced. This is without doubt the best opportunity ever offered to the public. Breweries pay larger dividends and there are few who ever hear of breweries failing on this coast? Breweries pay all the taxes. If you can find time to call at my office we will take pleasure in explaining and explain to you the advantages of this unusual investment. Write me and we will send you full particulars.

Humboldt Brewing Co.

Location, Eureka, Cal., on the Humboldt bay, in Humboldt County, one of the best counties in California. Eureka is a thriving town of 16,000, 200 miles north of San Francisco, with numerous surrounding towns of from 200 to 8000. The city of Eureka alone has 70 saloons, where beer is sold, and now is importing $15,000 worth of beer monthly. This business will all be controlled by our company, this being the only brewery in the county.

In addition to the local business, we have an assured sale of 25,000 barrels of beer the first year in San Francisco.

Eureka is noted for its pure water, without which good beer cannot be made. The good water, difference in taxes, cheap water transportation and other expenses will enable us to make a better beer and deliver it in San Francisco for less than it can be made there.

Ours, the Humboldt Brewing Co. is Organized Under the Law

Unlike many other companies, no one man or clique of men or investors controlled by the investor for the investor. Every man according to his holdings, no matter how small these holdings are, has an opportunity to purchase Brewery stock is sold, advanced. Los Angeles not one share of their stock can be purchased at an advance. The syndicate has $75,000,000 invested in breweries in San Francisco. The Rainier brewery grew from nothing to $5,000,000 in seventeen years. You have a chance. It may not be offered you again.

will be sold at 80 per share. After this the safest and best investment ever offered. It is being equipped with the most approved machinery from 30 to 40 per cent. dividends per year. Showing you photographs of the various buildings. If you cannot call fill out the coupon and send it to:

Humboldt Brewing Co.'s property of Eureka, consists of about six acres of land and five buildings, one of which has just been completed and is being equipped with the most approved machinery known to the brewery business. The buildings modern in every respect, absolutely fireproof, with a capacity of 40,000 barrels per year, but at a small outlay, increased to 70,000 barrels per year. A conservative estimate of the net profit on 82 per barrel, or $80,000 for the first year's production.

Add to this the profits from the Steam Beer Plant and Bottling Plant, which would amount to at least $200,000 more, in all $100,000, or 33-1/3 per cent. on the entire capitalization; $100,000 is ten per cent. of $1,000,000, which would be the actual value of the company's properties, and if sold at that price would bring to each stockholder $5 for every share owned, or 200 per cent. Do you know of any other enterprise that offers as good an investment as this? Remember, only a very few shares are being sold. You may not have this opportunity again.

Morphina-Cura

Will in the Future Be Known as HABITINA.

The world's most famous home remedy for the treatment of all drug habits will in the future be known as HABITINA—pertaining to habits consequent upon the use of narcotics. The stock of the old style Morphine-Cura is exhausted, he will supply you with HABITINA.

HABITINA is a combination of drugs which renders it possible to give the habitual user of narcotics drugs, with ten drops of HABITINA approximately the same support he obtains by the use of one grain of Morphine Sulphate. The necessary narcotic support is embodied in every bottle, but the exact amount is stated on the label so that the patient knows just exactly how much he is getting, and as a consequence can intelligently carry on a systematic plan of daily reduction in connection with the necessary support contained in HABITINA. The preparation contains antidotal and eliminative drugs, which should enable the patient to carry on a very gradual and satisfactory daily reduction.

The narcotic drug habitué should discontinue the use of his accustomed drug entirely and commencing the use of HABITINA by taking enough to support him, reducing the daily allowance thereafter as rapidly as possible, with comfort to himself.

If you are a habitual narcotic drug user TRY A BOTTLE OF HABITINA, which is sold at $2 per bottle by the Sun Drug Co. and Owl Drug Co., Los Angeles, Cal. If your drug dealer does not sell HABITINA, address strictest confidence THE DELTA CHEMICAL COMPANY, 1022 Highland Bldg., St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

Same kind in size for three-quarter bed, $4 a pair.

The new knob and spike styles, formed with bands of gold, or of same material as comb, gilt studded effects, gold and rhinestone set and chased or plain gold band tops—just the ones you'd choose if you set out to buy a stylish comb.

We held them good values at from $1.50 to $12.50; now they're 75c to $6.25.

Women who take pride in their apparel, nowadays buy matched suits of underwear.

Not only are they daintier in workmanship than separate pieces which could be purchased for the same price, but it appeals to one's senses of the fitness of things to have skirt, chemise, drawers and gown trimmed and finished alike. These are extra good values, even for this full-value-giving store.

If you want a summer frock which will stand out from the crowd and distinguish the wearer, choose from these silk eolienes, some of which you may admire in a display window today. So great a variety of shades and designs are there that any one is sure to find what she most fancies. Green, blue, lavender and black sprays of delicate foliage or flowers on backgrounds of sheerest white, lined by tiny brocaded spots or checks, form the motifs of these shimmery materials, but that doesn't begin to tell you how beautiful they really are. And durable, too, they don't tumble or wrinkle, even with prolonged wear. Seventy-five cents.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Current Thought.

A breezy afternoon devoted to current thought at the Ethel Club was productive of much discussion and several fine short talks under direction of Mrs. Florence Porter. The timely topic of the troubles in France seemed the division of church and state was treated very completely by Mrs. Burt Estes Howard, with pertinent remarks from Mrs. Porter.

Mrs. Gesterfelt of Chicago, who has recently sojourned for some time in London presented some very amusing and amusing aspects of current thought in the views of English people concerning American women.

"American women despise men," was one learned man's opinion, sagely concurred in by the rest of the assemblage that Mrs. Gesterfelt was describing, "but they love the money that men can earn for them." This delightful Chicago woman took up the cudgels for American women on this occasion. She told the learned gentlemen she was sorry that in his five years' stay in America, he had not been fortunate enough to meet the typical American woman. "I know her well," said Mrs. Gesterfelt, and she was candid enough to add, "and I have known her for sixty years."

Mrs. Cline, another Chicago woman, who has spent many years of her life in prison and reformatory work, gave an instructive account of these subjects.

The topic provoking most discussion, being closer to home than any other, was the question of excluding the Japanese. Mrs. Porter favored their being given free entrance into the country and the schools. Mrs. W. R. Blodgett said that if Mrs. Porter had not had a Jap cook as she had with the consequent experience in lack of honorable dealing, she would be slow to desire them in the schools.

Mrs. Gould took the missionary's view, having been among the people of the Orient with her husband in his work. She thought they should be allowed to come in that we may be able to do them good.

Wellesley Club.

The Southern California Wellesley Club enjoyed a delightful banquet at the Western Hotel on Saturday. It was decided to assist the work of the Los Angeles College Settlement in every way possible.

SAFE IN WILDS OF NEW JERSEY.

BISHOP HAMILTON NOT TAKEN TO JAMAICA.

Belated Mails Responsible for the Long Misunderstanding—Condition of His Health Steadily Improving, but Must Have a Long Rest—He's an Earthquake Dodger.

Much anxiety has been felt in this city over the possible fate of Bishop Hamilton in the Jamaica earthquake, as it was supposed that he had sailed for Kingston on January 1.

It will give great relief to his hosts of friends to know that he is safe in New Jersey, and that he never sailed for Jamaica. Unaccountable hitch in the mails and the belief on the part of the bishop that everybody interested in him knew of his movements, have been responsible for the delay in learning anything about him since the report was published that he was supposed to have been in Kingston when the earthquake occurred.

Yesterday Mrs. A. J. Wallace received a telegram telling her that the bishop is safe and had never sailed for the island. In the mail yesterday she also received a letter that has been unaccountably delayed, which fully explained everything.

Arriving in New York, it was decided that Bishop Hamilton was not well enough to undertake the proposed voyage, and he and Mrs. Hamilton remained in that city, and were there when the tidings came of the destruction of the island. Later on, they went over into New Jersey, where they at present are enjoying the hospitality of their friends. The bishop is showing steady improvement, though his condition is such that no one is permitted to see him except the members of the household, in which he is a guest.

Bishop Hamilton suffers greatly from what the doctors say is neuralgia of the stomach, and his condition is even yet quite serious, though it is thought he will recover. The breakdown is a most serious one, following after years of the most unceasing toil, and it is one of the possibilities that he may never again take up active work. He is permitted to receive no mail, write no letters, nor have any intercourse whatever with the activities of life.

Instead of being fated to run into earthquakes, Bishop Hamilton has, in fact, been fortunate in keeping away from them. When the San Francisco quake occurred he was on the Atlantic Coast, while his family escaped serious consequences, and were joined in this city by the bishop some weeks after the disaster.

He then went East again, and was released from all work in connection with the episcopacy for one year, the time to be devoted to raising money to restore the San Francisco churches. Before he could enter upon his new duties he was taken sick at Buffalo, N. Y., where he lay for many weeks in a hospital under the care of skilled nurses. When it was thought safe to move him he was taken to New York for the purpose of going to Kingston, where close friends awaited his arrival. His physicians announce that he must have a long and complete rest. Bishop Hamilton never had charge of any missionary work in Jamaica, and never has visited the islands.

TOURISTS—Let your friends in the East know that you are in Los Angeles, and what The Times has done for you by sending them one of The Times post cards. These are on sale at all drug stores, stationery stores and news stands at 10 cents.
